

Handball Rules

- There is a maximum of 6 players per game
- Paper, Scissors, Rock is used to decide who is King.
- The ball must be hit over the line into someone else's square on the full.
- The ball must bounce before you hit it back into someone's square or you are out.
- The ball must be below shoulder height. You are out if you hit it over a person's head.
- There is an order – King, Queen, Jack 'Dungeon'. King always serves.
- The next person in line is the umpire until they get in. The umpire makes the final decision.
- There is no skimming, sweeping, double tapping, hovers or grabs.
- If the ball bounces on the line it gets replayed.
- When someone is out they are out – there is no play on.